

7.1.1 REFLECTION

After working with the “Roaring Twenties” for the last 8 days, reflect on the experience. I am looking for three paragraphs: 1) Describe the process of creating your Keynote/essay including anything you learned, how you researched, etc.; 2) Summarize the feedback you received on the 7.1.1 discussion page (click here and it should take you there) describing how others felt about your work; 3) Reflect upon your own work and describe steps you could take to make it better, even if your grade was 20/20. Export to PDF and upload to your wiki and link to your student page when finished.

The process for creating the Roaring Twenties project was quite easy considering that I am quite familiar with the works and life of Ernest Hemingway. In fifth grade, I did a project on Ernest Hemingway, so I only had to do a little bit of research and use what I remembered from my fifth grade project in order to accommodate for the work needed to complete the project. I did learn some very interesting information about Hemingway that I did not know. For example, I had no idea he was in WWI and was an ambulance driver for the wounded and dead soldiers. The research as far as information goes was fairly easy to find. As far as pictures go, that was a tad more difficult, because they needed to go with the information, which can be rather difficult.

According to the feedback for my project, I did a great job with my topic and nobody saw anything wrong with it. I had some very reliable sources that I can trust too. Chris Rieger commented, “Allison you did an absolute excellent job, I love the thesis, I love how you answered it and the whole keynote was wonderful.” He was obviously impressed with the final project. CHRIS seems to be a very reliable source as well as someone I can trust for truthful feedback. All of my feedback was similar to Chris’s. Nobody found anything that they said I should change, not that they mentioned, anyway.

Even though my peers approved highly of my project, there were some flaws that could have made my project better. I could have provided a more clear picture of what Ernest Hemingway did for the Roaring Twenties and how important his influence to the Roaring Twenties was. I feel like I could have made the notes a little bit more helpful or detailed. If I were presenting the project, they would have been perfect, but since I wasn’t presenting, it is a good idea to make notes a little more lengthy in terms of explanation. Other than that, I am pretty well satisfied with the final result of the project.
